

from Savannah River Nuclear Solutions, LLC

Contact: DT Townsend
Corporate Communications
803.952.7566
dt-lawrence.townsend@srs.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Aiken County United Way Recognizes “Exemplary” Contributions by SRNS during 2012 Employee Campaign

Thousands of SRNS employees, dozens of retirees and three corporate parent companies worked together throughout 2012 to raise more than $700,000 to help those in need throughout Aiken County

AIKEN, S.C. – (March 20, 2013) Savannah River Nuclear Solutions, LLC (SRNS) employees were recently presented the top honor from the United Way of Aiken County, known as the “Highest Employee Achievement Award,” received for contributing the largest donation during their 2012 campaign.

$644,000 of the $1.17 million raised by SRNS employees during the 2012 SRNS Employee Campaign has been distributed through United Way of Aiken County to 36 local charitable organizations. These United Way of Aiken County partners include ACTS, Aiken Area Council on Aging, Children’s Place, Cumbee Center to Assist Abused Persons, Golden Harvest Food Bank, Helping Hands, Savannah River Cancer Foundation, the Tri-Development Center and many others.

In addition to the $644,000 donated to United Way of Aiken County, SRNS employees and retirees also fully utilized a matching plan offered by SRNS parent companies, adding over $100,000 to the total contribution. Combined with additional donations from SRNS corporate headquarters personnel to the employee campaign, the grand total of $755,000 was achieved.

“We want to thank SRNS for their unequalled generosity, continued support and heartfelt commitment to assist folks in our community who are less fortunate,” said Sharon Rogers, SRNS Employee United Way Campaign Chairperson Tammy Rimes receives the “Highest Employee Achievement Award” on behalf of all SRNS employees from 2012 Aiken County United Way Campaign Chairperson Richard Harmon.

The Savannah River Site is owned by the U.S. Department of Energy and is managed and operated by Savannah River Nuclear Solutions, LLC.

President, United Way of Aiken County. “We are truly overwhelmed and humbled by the support of your employees, which remains steadfast and certain despite economic hardship and uncertainty. We also deeply appreciate your spirit of volunteerism in assisting United Way agencies and elderly/disabled homeowners through Project VISION's Day of Caring, fundraisers and committees. You are always there for us.”

In 2011, nearly 130,000 people were served through United Way of Aiken County funded programs.

“These are financially difficult times for many two-income families, much less single parents,” said Tammy Rimes, 2012 SRNS Employee United Way Campaign Chair. “And when tragedy strikes, be it a lost job, a serious illness, physical abuse or even a lost spouse, we can count on a wide variety of services provided by area United Way agencies. Our goal is to do our part to help them help others.”

Rimes also explained that SRNS generously made a corporate donation of $200,000 to the region's various United Way organizations this past year, to include United Way of the CSRA and United Way of Barnwell County.

SRNS also won the highly prestigious “Stanley A. Quarles Spirit Award” during the recent award ceremony for the for corporation deserving special recognition for extraordinary fund-raising achievements during the 2012 United Way campaign.

John Mickalonis, Savannah River National Laboratory, was presented the “leader of the year” award for his notable contributions.

Savannah River Nuclear Solutions, LLC, is a Fluor led company whose members are Fluor Federal Services, Newport News Nuclear and Honeywell, responsible for the management and operations of the Department of Energy's Savannah River Site, including the Savannah River National Laboratory, located near Aiken, South Carolina.

Visit us on the web at www.savannahrivernuclearsolutions.com

SRNS-13-113