FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SRNS Raises over $1.2M to Local United Way Agencies

AIKEN, S.C., (Nov. 27, 2019) – Savannah River Nuclear Solutions employees gave back to surrounding communities through another successful United Way campaign, raising $1,237,892, which includes the employee campaign and corporate match. The SRNS campaign committee recently invited the participating United Way agencies to the Savannah River Site for a celebration.

During the event, Campaign Chair A.D. Bollig presented the donation checks to the United Way agency representatives. Among these representatives were Sharon Rodgers, President, United Way of Aiken County and Brittany Burnett, President and CEO, United Way of the CSRA (Central Savannah River Area).

The SRNS United Way campaign plays as a huge contributor to the surrounding United Way agencies. “SRNS has been an amazing partner and number one contributor to the United Way of the CSRA for many years,” said Burnett. “United Way of the CSRA impacts the lives of one in four people in our community. We would not be able to have this level of impact without the support from the SRNS community.”

“SRNS is consistently viewed as a strong corporate citizen here in the CSRA, and their support for United Way is just another way in which their leadership is evident in our region,” continued Burnett.

With the support of the SRNS United Way Campaign, the United Way of Aiken County is able to help those in need. “The SRNS United Way Campaign is the largest supporter of the United Way of Aiken County,” said Rodgers. “Without the support of SRNS and its very generous employees, our nonprofit community would not have the funding it needs to impact the lives of children, seniors, disabled, underemployed and people in crisis throughout our community.”

Along with eCard donations, employees raised approximately $138,000 more by fundraising through bake sales, silent auctions, lunches and other events. Parent companies of SRNS also provided a corporate match totaling $209,319.

2019 United Way Chair A.D. Bollig was blown away by the immense support from employees throughout the campaign. “Without the extremely generous and caring SRNS employees, we would have not met our goal,” said Bollig. “I just want to extend a huge thank you to all the individuals who dedicated their time, money and support to all the campaign events.”

This year’s campaign benefits the following agencies surrounding the Savannah River Site: United Way of Aiken County; United Way of the CSRA; United Way of Edgefield County; United Way of McDuffie County; United Way of the Midlands; United Way of Screven County; United Way of South Carolina, including Bamberg, Colleton and Hampton counties; United Way of Anderson County; and United Way of Barnwell County, including Allendale County.

Savannah River Nuclear Solutions, a Fluor-led company with Newport News Nuclear and Honeywell, is responsible for the management and operations of the Department of Energy’s Savannah River Site, including the Savannah River National Laboratory, located near Aiken, South Carolina.
