FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CSRA Virtual College Night Tomorrow: Over 70 Colleges and Universities to Benefit Area Students

Multiple scholarships totaling $15,000 to be awarded

AIKEN, S.C., November 3, 2021 – Over 114 recruiters from 77 colleges and universities will be available to meet with high school students and parents at this year's CSRA Virtual College Night, which will take place tomorrow, Nov. 4, 5-8:30 p.m. Seniors will have an opportunity to win $15,000 in scholarships. The event is free of charge.

"Due to COVID-19, we're hosting College Night virtually this year," said Gladys Moore, Savannah River Nuclear Solutions Education Outreach. "We have a lot to offer area high school students."

Using a computer or mobile device, such as a cell phone or tablet, click on the link below to register:

The link can also be found on the Savannah River Site web page: Click on Outreach, Education Outreach Programs, then CSRA College Night.

College Night virtual information booths feature:

- Tips and instruction about seeking Georgia and South Carolina financial aid;
- Information on educational opportunities, admission requirements and tuition;
- Access to the counseling center where students and parents can obtain advice about the college application process from high school advisors and admissions professionals; and
- Guidance from professional societies in areas such as engineering, management, chemical and nuclear science.

Seniors attending a portion of the event, maintaining a 2.5 GPA on a 4.0 scale or equivalent, will be eligible to win one of fifteen $1,000 scholarships. All winners will be notified by text and email.

CSRA College Night is sponsored by the U.S. Department of Energy-Savannah River Operations Office, Savannah River Nuclear Solutions, SRP Federal Credit Union and iHeart Media.
