

from Savannah River Nuclear Solutions, LLC

Contact: DT Townsend
SRNS Public Affairs
803.952.7566

dt-lawrence.townsend@srs.gov

For Immediate Release

Savannah River National Laboratory Receives National Safety Council Award

The National Safety Council awarded Savannah River National Laboratory a Safety Leadership Award, recognizing five consecutive years without an occupational injury or illness resulting in lost employee work days - a milestone reached on Jan. 10 of this year. SRNL's performance makes it the safest DOE National Laboratory in the country, a position it has held every year since becoming a National Laboratory in 2004.

